A year ago, I became President of TWL. Unsure of how to lead this group of incredible women through TWL’s 30th year, I spoke with those who served as Past Presidents and learned expectations were high. I feared I would be unable to reach those expectations.

I quickly realized TWL was safe. The success of TWL had nothing to do with me. The success of TWL was because of the nearly 30 incredible women who served as TWL’s Board. If one could compare this year to a play, my job was that of a mere stage hand, sliding back the curtain to allow the talent to take the stage and wow the audience. And, wow is what this Board and TWL’s membership did.

TWL received the 2011 Chief Justice’s Voluntary Bar Pro Bono Service Award for the more than 6000 hours a year in pro bono service members provide. In addition, TWL member Elizabeth “Bib” Willis received the 2011 Second Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Service Award. TWL also honored Wendy Loquasto, Elizabeth “Bib” Willis, Meghan Boudreau Daigle, Winifred Acosta NeSmith, M. Catherine Lannon, and Carol S. Grondzik with its Inspirational Service Awards to honor their pro bono and community service.

Judge Judith Hawkins, TWL’s Sunshine Chair, sent countless notes on behalf of TWL to congratulate members on accomplishments and to offer support in times of need. These are essential to TWL’s mission of support and friendship.

Every general membership meeting was a success because of the work of Meghan Boudreau Daigle, TWL’s Programs Chair, and Jenny Kim, TWL’s Meetings Coordinator.

Elizabeth “Bib” Willis organized TWL’s Judicial Candidates Forum allowing TWL members to meet the candidates for Second Judicial Circuit Court Judge. For the first time in history, the two candidates were women.

Carol Grondzik and Cathy Lannon produced the color 30th Anniversary Year Directory which was provided to every member and members of the judiciary.

Catherine Chapman and Megan Warren organized a spectacular Judicial Reception. This year’s festivities even included a new feature - a photo history of the judiciary.

Winifred Acosta NeSmith organized TWL community service efforts, including a Second Harvest food drive, a holiday fund-raiser to raise donations for Refuge House, Office of Public Guardian, Inc. (OPG) and Guardian Ad Litem, and TWL’s donations for the Bed, Bath and Hope Program and the TMH Pediatric ICU.

Wendy Loquasto helped TWL renew its commitment to assisting Legal Services of North Florida with financial donations to Jazz for Justice and through the recruitment of volunteers to serve LSNF clients.

First District Court of Appeal Judge Stephanie Williams Ray coordinated TWL’s mentoring program in which TWL members mentored approximately 50 FSU law students. This year’s mentoring program included TWL’s 30th Anniversary Year Rookie Camp, supported by grants from the Florida Bar Foundation. Rookie Camp was organized and directed to its success by Jenny Shoaf and Lindsey Lawton, who had help from more than 30 volunteers from TWL, the judiciary, and the legal community.

Jessica Slatten produced TWL’s circuit wide and member only newsletters, which have expanded in size and distribution this year.

Aubrey Posey coordinated TWL’s public relations and produced TWL’s monthly E-news as well as all of the additional E-reminders and notices.

Carly Schrader arranged TWL’s annual Spring Lunch and Learn series, which brought both Bar CLE and mediator CMEs to attendees.

Monica Freeland, TWL’s Special Events Chair, led TWL to another victory in the Annual Chili Cook-off. Her efforts included creating a jail cell from which TWL’s chili was served.

Trudy Innes Richardson worked with local firms and businesses to find sponsors for TWL’s events and general membership meetings.

Regina Keenan and Carol Grondzik found awards, solicited nominations for those awards and created countless nomination packets used by TWL to nominate its members for local, state and national awards.

Lauchlin Waldoch and Dana Brooks evaluated TWL’s Legacy of Excellence program. Their suggestions and changes will ensure the program’s continuation and growth for years to come.

Tracy Moye organized TWL’s annual Breakfast and Books Program with PACE Center for Girls. Her tireless work included providing a new, more engaging approach for volunteers and students, and evaluated the program.

Olivia Klein is creating a history of TWL over the past 30 years.

Gigi Rollini, Florida Association for Women Lawyers President, continued to chair the WE Network, including updating the WE Network website and organizing social events and fundraisers.

Florida Bar Board of Governors and TWL members Larry Sellers and Bill Davis worked with TWL member Karen Campbell, Executive Director of OPG, to coordinate the Board of Governors’ community work day to revitalize the Tallahassee Developmental Center, which houses several OPG clients.

In addition to these events, Jennifer Sullivan Davis and Jessica Leigh audited the entire TWL membership roll and dues as part of FAWL’s transition to a new executive director. Their efforts increased TWL’s revenue and created a new membership roster.

I am so happy to pass this legacy to Jennifer Sullivan Davis. She takes the reins of a fantastic organization filled with women and men who will make her look good, as they made me look this year. As I leave, I want to thank everyone for their work, support, and friendship.
TWL Member and Past President Mary Ellen Clark was elected chair of the Government Lawyer Section and appointed to the Professional Ethics Committee of The Florida Bar.

Congratulations to TWL’s Special Events Committee Chair, Monica Freeland, formerly Monica Evans, on her marriage.

TWL Member and 30th Anniversary Co-chair Carol S. Grondzik received TWL’s June 2011 Inspirational Service Award in recognition of her pro bono and community service.

TWL Member and Sunshine Chair Judge Judith W. Hawkins received the Parks & Crump Thurgood Marshall Judicial Excellence Award at the Law Week Celebration & Recognition Ceremony hosted by Legal Services of North Florida, Inc. Judge Hawkins also received FAWL’s Leaders in the Law Award.

TWL Member and 30th Anniversary Co-chair M. Catherine Lannon received TWL’s April 2011 Inspirational Service Award in recognition of her pro bono and community service.

TWL Member Karen Oehme was named a Distinguished University Scholar at FSU. Ms. Oehme is the director of the Institute for Family Violence Studies and received the award for her work on domestic violence issues.

TWL Member and Past President Chasity O’Steen, of Rose Sundstrom & Bently, was presented with FAWL’s Leaders in the Law Award.

TWL Member Lynne Quimby-Pennock was appointed as an Administrative Law Judge at Florida’s Division of Administrative Hearings.

TWL Member and Mentoring Director Judge Stephanie Williams Ray was appointed by Governor Rick Scott as a judge at Florida’s First District Court of Appeal.

TWL Member and FAWL President Gigi Rollini was named both a 2011 Super Lawyers Rising Star and Florida Trend Legal Elite Up & Comer for Appellate Law.

TWL Member Cathy Sellers was appointed as an Administrative Law Judge at Florida’s Division of Administrative Hearings.

TWL President Twyla Sketchley is the Chair-Elect of the Elder Law Section of the Florida Bar. Ms. Sketchley was also named as one of Florida Trend’s 2011 Legal Elite and was presented with FAWL’s Leaders in the Law Award.

TWL Member Jessica Enciso Varn was appointed as an Administrative Law Judge at Florida’s Division of Administrative Hearings.

GOT NEWS?

TWL attempts to stay current with what’s happening in its members’ lives and to recognize member achievements in the Member News section of its quarterly newsletter. Our members are very accomplished, however, so as hard as we try, we sometimes miss things. If you have any news (regarding yourself or another TWL member) that you would like TWL to publish, please submit it to TWL’s Newsletter Director, Jessica L. Slatten, at jslaten@raybounmulligan.com. Additionally, member news also appears in TWL’s E-News, which is published more frequently than the quarterly newsletter. Submit member news for publication in TWL’s E-News to TWL’s Public Relations Director, Aubrey Posey, at aubrey.posey@hotmail.com. We look forward to sharing your news!
MEETING SPONSORS & SERVICE PROVIDERS

Because TWL is a non-profit, voluntary bar organization, contributions from sponsors and volunteer services providers are critical to maintaining the excellent level of programming TWL currently provides to its members. TWL would like to thank the following meeting sponsors and volunteer service providers who have contributed to its meetings since May 2011. LexisNexis sponsored TWL’s May Lunch & Learn CLEs. Healthy Solutions, Inc. provided seated massages at TWL’s June 15, 2011, General Membership Meeting, The Art of Fun. Healthy Solutions, Inc. is located at 521 East College Ave., Tallahassee, FL 32301, (850) 545-1368. For information regarding sponsorship opportunities, contact TWL’s Director of Development, Jason O’Steen, at (850) 877-1028 or at jason@osteenosteen.com.

JOIN TWL’S MENTORING PROGRAM

It’s that time of year again—time to join TWL’s Mentoring Program! Our mentoring program pairs judge and attorney mentors with FSU College of Law students from the Women’s Law Symposium. This year’s program will include events designed to build strong mentor-mentee relationships and provide valuable networking and learning opportunities for all involved. Mentor-mentee pairings will be made in August so that we can hit the ground running when the students return to school. If you would like to serve as a mentor this year, or to learn more about the program, please contact Judge Stephanie Williams Ray at rays@1dca.org or 850-487-1000.

MANY THANKS TO TWL FOR ITS SUPPORT OF JAZZ FOR JUSTICE!

By Wendy Loquasto, TWL’s Liaison to Legal Services

Legal Services of North Florida, Inc., extends its grateful thanks to Tallahassee Women Lawyers for its support of Jazz for Justice through its Family Sponsorship and through the hours of donated time by TWL volunteers and the purchase of tickets and sponsorships and the donation of items to the silent auction by its members. Thanks to TWL and the other supporters, Jazz for Justice 2011 was the BEST JAZZ EVER and the most successful!

Special thanks to the following TWL members who went above and beyond: Catherine Chapman, Meghan Boudreau Daigle, Jennifer Sullivan Davis, Carol S. Grondzik, Joan Humphrey Anderson, Trudy Innes Richardson, Jessica Leigh, Wendy Loquasto, Lauren Moody, Dana Morris-Brooks, Winifred Acosta Nesmith, Aubrey Posey, and Twyla Sketchley.

In these economic times, with Governor Scott’s veto of $1 million in funds to legal services organizations ($52K to LSNF), the Florida Legislature’s cut of $1 million for foreclosure assistance ($60K to LSNF), and proposals in Washington to cut $300 million from Legal Services Corporation appropriations (a rollback to pre-1999 funding), the importance of efforts like Jazz for Justice and the generosity of supporters like TWL cannot be understated. THANKS, TWL, FOR ALL YOU DO FOR LSNF! Without your support, LSNF could not continue to assist the low-income citizens of Florida’s Panhandle by ensuring equal justice for all!

P.S. Don’t forget to contact John Fenno (701-3306 or john@lsnf.org) to sign up for the LSNF Hotline.
By Jennifer Sullivan Davis, TWL’s FAWL Representative and President-Elect. Ms. Davis is an attorney at Guilday, Tucker, Schwartz & Simpson, P.A., where she practices professional liability defense. She may be reached at jen@guildaylaw.com or at (850) 224-7091.

This has been an incredibly successful year for the Florida Association for Women Lawyers (FAWL), TWL’s statewide parent organization. FAWL is entering its 60th year and I have recognized that the key to its successes this year was the leadership by FAWL President, Gigi Rollini of Holland & Knight, LLP, and other TWL members including Elizabeth “Bib” Willis, FAWL’s Legislative Director, and Karen Howe, TWL Affiliate Member and FAWL’s new Executive Director. Serving as a Chapter Representative for TWL for the second year in a row really gave me a good idea of how instrumental FAWL has been in shaping The Bar’s focus on women and diversity, as well as the challenges that a statewide organization has managing 29 Chapters.

As President of FAWL, Gigi Rollini coordinated FAWL’s Inaugural Women’s Leadership Summit, which was held in March in Tallahassee in conjunction with FAWL’s Lobby Day and TWL’s award-winning Women’s Empowerment Series. In her additional role as Immediate Past President of TWL, Gigi fully launched TWL’s Professional Women’s Exchange (WE) Network, which is a broad network of professionals and community leaders brought together for the purpose of facilitating business and leadership development for women professionals. There is no better way for a woman to get ahead in marketing than by creating her own network of people for referrals and leadership opportunities, while helping the community at the same time.

Bib Willis was instrumental in coordinating Lobby Day this year. Once again, Bib gave our FAWL visitors a warm welcome and thorough tour of the Capitol building. Bib always makes visiting FAWL members feel as if they are getting a personal tour of our community!

Karen Howe, TWL Affiliate Member and FAWL’s new Executive Director, joined our organization mid-year (in October 2010), and jumped right in to help get (and keep) our Chapters organized, particularly in the membership and dues departments. We are so very happy to have Karen at the helm of our administrative side and are grateful that FAWL is a staffed voluntary bar.

In celebration of FAWL’s 60th anniversary, FAWL held its 60th Anniversary Gala & Dinner on June 23, 2011, at the Gaylord Palms Resort in Orlando, FL, where FAWL recognized recipients of its Leaders in the Law Award from each Chapter. Speakers included Florida Supreme Court Justices Peggy Quince and Barbara Pariente, Past FAWL President Siobhan Shea, Past FAWL and TWL Presidents Judge June C. McKinney and Wendy Loquasto, and Past FAWL and Florida Bar President Edith Osman. Award recipients from TWL included Judge Judith W. Hawkins, TWL’s Sunshine Chair; Chasity O’Steen of Rose Sundstrom & Bentley, TWL Past President (2007-2008); and Twyla Sketchley, TWL’s outgoing President and founder of The Sketchley Law Firm. FAWL also held its Annual Meeting, Installation of its Officers, and Board Orientation on June 23-24, 2011. Finally, FAWL co-hosted the Joint Awards Lunch, where Administrative Law Judge June C. McKinney, who is also a FAWL and TWL Past President, was awarded FAWL’s prestigious Rosemary Barkett Outstanding Achievement Award.
TWL’S INAUGURAL ROOKIE CAMP

On April 8, 2011, TWL hosted its first “Rookie Camp” for new attorneys and law students at the First District Court of Appeal. The event was kicked off the evening before with a wine and cheese event celebrating the Mentoring Program and the relationship between TWL and FSU College of Law’s Women’s Law Symposium. Students mingled with their attorney mentors and received a behind-the-scenes tour of the new courthouse, led by the Honorable Simone Marstiller, of the First District Court of Appeal.

Rookie Camp took place the following day and was attended by law students from Florida State, Florida Coastal, and new attorneys in the Tallahassee area. The students received practical advice in the form of three different panels. Lynne Quimby-Pennock, Board of Governors Member Bill Davis, and Terry Dariotis discussed “Ten Things Every New Attorney Should Know on the First Day of the First Job.” Their discussion was followed by “An Order is an Order, Not a Suggestion” with the Honorable Joseph Lewis, of the First District Court of Appeal, and TWL Mentoring Director, the Honorable Stephanie Williams Ray, of the First District Court of Appeal, speaking. Finally, Judge Marstiller, Aubrey Posey, and Karen Campbell shared the journeys they have taken in their careers during the alternative career panel. Here, the students and attorneys learned how to use their law degree as a tool in achieving sometimes non-traditional career goals.

The panel discussions were followed by lunch and a speed mentoring session. Local attorneys and members of the judiciary joined for this portion of the day. Legal Services, Guardian Ad Litem, and the Office of Public Guardian set up booths and encouraged students to donate pro bono services. Many thanks to the Florida Bar Foundation for generous grants provided through the Voluntary Bar Association Community Service Grant Program and the Affiliate Outreach Conference, put on by the Young Lawyers Division of The Florida Bar, which made this event free of charge for the students and new attorneys.
By Gigi Rollini, TWL’s WE Network Chair & Past President. Ms. Rollini practices in the Litigation Group at Holland & Knight LLP in Tallahassee, Florida. Her practice includes all aspects of Florida Administrative Practice and Appellate Law. Ms. Rollini is the Outgoing President of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers.

After holding TWL’s first Professional Women’s Exchange (“WE”) Network Social at The Wine Loft in Midtown on May 19, 2011, the WE Network officially grew to more than 300 members!

The Social was a great networking event for lawyers and non-lawyers alike, and gave members the chance to support a number of local, women-owned businesses, to meet new friends, and to take a break from our daily lives immersed in the law!

After fielding dozens of inquiries regarding when the next WE Network Social will be held, the answer is: We will hold a Spa Social at So Pure Salon this summer, and a mixer in early September 2011 at another fantastic local, women-owned business! Stay tuned for details.

For those who do not already know, the WE Network was created to build a broad network of lawyers, non-lawyer professionals, and community leaders. Its purpose: To facilitate business and leadership development for local women professionals.

For lawyers, WE Network membership is limited to TWL members. So, if you have not yet renewed your TWL membership for the July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012 year, do so today at www.fawl.org!

For non-lawyers, WE Network membership is by invitation only through an existing WE Network member. We encourage you to invite to join local professional women you believe would benefit personally or professionally from the WE Network!

There is no fee to be a WE Network member, and you can register and create your personalized profile page in just minutes at www.we-network.org. Once registered, you will become a part of the WE Network database—which all WE Network members can search—of service professionals and local business owners who share the WE Network’s mission.

We hope you will take a moment today to register for the WE Network, and we look forward to seeing you at our next Social!

For more information or to get involved with upcoming WE Network events, contact Ms. Rollini at gigi.rollini@hklaw.com.
GET INVOLVED IN TWL!—JOIN A COMMITTEE OR GET INVOLVED WITH THE BOARD!

Jennifer Sullivan Davis, TWL’s Incoming President, is an attorney at Guilday, Tucker, Schwartz & Simpson, P.A., where she practices professional liability defense.

Tallahassee Women Lawyers is one of Florida’s most active voluntary bar associations. Although we are not a staffed organization, we have a very strong Board consisting of five elected officers (President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Public Relations), an Immediate Past President, and seven elected directors (Mentoring, Programs, Development, Newsletter, CLE, Judicial Reception, and FAWL Representative). In addition, the President appoints members to chair our committees including Awards, Charitables & Community Service, Judicial Reception Development, Legacy of Excellence, Meetings Coordinator, Special Events, Sunshine Chair, Young Lawyers Section and Breakfast & Books. The Board in its entirety implements our overall mission, while the Directors and Chairs manage the day to day details of our programs.

Many of you know that my husband, Ashley, is an emergency manager and, after years of observing him in action with the latest disasters (hurricanes, wildfires, floods, and an oil spill), I have come to think of TWL in terms of emergency management—plans, finance and admin, operations, and logistics. The Board as a whole meets every month to plan our year and programs. The Officers primarily handle the finance and administrative side. The Directors are in charge of the operations for their various programs and work closely with the Committee Chairs and Committee Members to execute their programs and handle the logistics for making sure these events are a success!

While this all sounds like we have it under control—and of course we do—we could always use additional help with new ideas or suggestions on improving our programs. The Chairs of our Committees are looking to get you involved and get you on their Committees! Many of you indicated on your membership application or renewal forms the committees you were interested in. In that case, we will have the Chair of those Committees contact you shortly. If you are interested in a Committee, but didn’t have a chance to let us know before, please contact Meghan Boudreau Daigle, President-elect at mbdagle@comcast.net or Jen Sullivan Davis, President, at jen@guildaylaw.com to learn more or sign up for a Committee. We look forward to hearing from you!

MY, HOW TIME FLIES!

TWL celebrates its 31st Anniversary this year! When TWL was just two years old, we held our first Annual Judicial Reception. Who knew at the time that we would be continuing this tradition almost three decades later! Preparations are already underway for our 29th Annual Judicial Reception, which will be held this October. And we need your help! We are looking for photographs, newspaper articles, etc., of judges, TWL members, or other local, state, or national leaders taken at past TWL events that you would be willing to loan to TWL. Many of these items will be enlarged and displayed at the Judicial Reception. If you have any items you would like to share, please contact TWL’s Judicial Reception Director, Catherine Chapman, at catherine@guildaylaw.com or at (850) 224-7091. Thank you for helping us celebrate 31 great years!
